Focal theme of congress is " Save Environment and Save Earth " and papers can be submitted in various subjects of Science and Environment.

We expect many delegates from all over the world at World Research Journals Congress at India. Please participate in congress and send full papers at your earliest.

We know that you are a very good researcher in your field, therefore we request you to contribute research papers for our World Environment Congress. For accepting the paper, we concentrate on merit, quality and relevance of paper. We expect a good interaction amongst Scientists, Professors, Industrialists, R & D people at our congress over different topics.

PUBLICATION POLICY

All abstracts should be submitted along with registration fees before November 30, 2017. Full papers received for congress in above subjects should be received before December 15, 2017 and will be published in E-Proceedings and will be presented to every delegate in CD at time of congress. All accepted papers for congress will be presented at congress. Full papers related to our journals will be published in regular issues of journals after their scrutiny and approval by experts of journals. Acceptance in congress/conference is liberal but acceptance for our journals is strict. Therefore, after the congress, we will submit papers related to journals to our experts and after their acceptance, we will try to publish papers in various regular issues of year 2018. We request all the delegates to be annual member or fellow member of World Research Association.

It is necessary that registered delegates and fellow members should submit manuscript in time and should participate in the congress otherwise your manuscript will not be considered for journals. If any delegate is not participating after paying the registration fees, then he/she should take prior permission for publication. Delegates can submit maximum two manuscripts.

All our International Double Peer Reviewed well indexed E-Journals can be accessed at our website. First four journals are also included in UGC list.
